

Ordeal Packing Instructions

Welcome Ordeal Candidate!

Upon arrival to camp, wearing a complete Scout Uniform and appropriate outer clothing, you will check-in at registration and provide a copy of your most current BSA Medical Form (Parts A & B).

After check-in, you will set-up your tent/hammock with your extra gear (just like you'd do for any other campout) at your designated campsite for use Saturday night.

After you are set-up, go to the Handicraft Shelter with your horseshoe roll.

Below is everything you'll need for the Friday night of your ordeal is listed below, along with instructions on how to pack it in a horseshoe roll.

Gear For Your Horseshoe Roll

- Poncho, tarp, or heavy plastic sheet (~8'x10')
- Sleeping Bag and/or Blanket
- Toiletries & medications as needed (inside a sealed bag)
- Work Clothes
- Work Gloves
- Paracord or string to tie-up the roll

Pack everything listed above inside, or on top of, your sleeping bag and then roll your sleeping bag with your tarp around it - per the directions on the right.

Additional Gear To Bring

** But do NOT pack inside the horseshoe roll ****

- Water Bottle / Hydration pack
- Flashlight
- Pocket Knife
- Bug repellent (optional)

Please Note: You will sleep out under the stars on your first night with only the equipment you bring, so be prepared. In the case of severe weather, you will be moved under cover.

Making Your Horseshoe Roll

- Fold the long sides of poncho over the sleeping bag, this will help seal the ends
- Then start rolling at one end
- Finished roll should be about 5 feet long
- Tie around the roll to hold it together
- Fold in half and then tie the two ends together

Finished Horseshoe Roll

Wear over your right shoulder and across your body to keep your hands free.
